

Sunday, March 17, 2024 — The Fifth Sunday of Lent

The First Church in Albany

In response to God's unconditional love for all people made known to us in Jesus Christ, we are called to be a welcoming and affirming community. The First Church in Albany includes young and old, families, couples and singles, rich and poor, persons of various races, ethnicities, backgrounds, sexual orientation and gender identities, differing physical and mental abilities, believers and seekers. We welcome into the full life of the church all those whom God sends us. Centered in Christ, we commit ourselves to breaking down dividing walls and building a community where we are loved.

(Reformed Church in America)

Founded in 1642; Continuing in Ministry Today.

Prelude Reflection Alice Walker

"No person is your friend who demands your silence, or denies your right to grow."

"We Are People on a Journey"

(see insert)

For each Sunday leading up to Palm Sunday during this season of Lent, five congregants will process with common Christian symbols of worship, signifying our Lenten journey to the cross. These common Christian symbols of worship are a cross (or cloth to drape the cross with), a candle lighter, the church's bible, and the sacramental elements of water, wheat, and vines.

Welcome, Announcements, & Blessing

May the Lord bring you with great joy into his glorious presence.

Call to Worship Psalm 51:6-12

Votum: Blessed the Lord Oh my soul. Together let us bless God's holy name.
Amen.

People: Lord, You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

Leader: Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

People: Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.

Leader: Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me.

All: Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit.

Opening Hymn "For All The Faithful Women" (see insert)

Prayer of Confession

Lord, please forgive us for the times you have called us to risk our comfort and we say no. Forgive us for the times we assess the problems and decide to stay silent against injustice for the hope of peace in our own lives. Forgive us for ignoring the truth. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. Bless us to leap in faith and not languish in fear.

Time of silence

Choir Anthem

Assurance of Pardon & Fulfillment of the Law inspired by Jeremiah 22:3 & John 10:10

This is what the LORD says: Administer justice and righteousness. Rescue the victim of robbery from the hand of his oppressor. Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Do not shed innocent blood in this place. Jesus came so that you may have life and have it more abundantly. Have faith. Take heart and leap. Have faith, take heart, and forgive; practice kindness; give generously; and trust God.

Passing the Peace

Leader: The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us spend a few moments greeting one another.

Prayer for Illumination Please sing

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me. Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me. Melt me. Mold me. Fill me. Use me. Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me!

First Lesson

John 12:20-33 (NRSVue)

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew, then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain, but if it dies it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

"Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say: 'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Leader: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, O Christ!

Sermon Text

Esther 4:4-16 (The Message Translation)

Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her. The queen was stunned. She sent fresh clothes to Mordecai so he could take off his sackcloth but he wouldn't accept them. Esther called for Hathach, one of the royal eunuchs whom the king had assigned to wait on her, and told him to go to Mordecai and get the full story of what was happening. So Hathach went to Mordecai in the town square in front of the King's Gate. Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him. He also told him the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to deposit in the royal bank to finance the massacre of the Jews. Mordecai also gave him a copy of the bulletin that had been posted in Susa ordering the massacre so he could show it to Esther when he reported back with instructions to go to the king and intercede and plead with him for her people.

Hathach came back and told Esther everything Mordecai had said. Esther talked it over with Hathach and then sent him back to Mordecai with this message: “Everyone who works for the king here, and even the people out in the provinces, knows that there is a single fate for every man or woman who approaches the king without being invited: death. The one exception is if the king extends his gold scepter; then he or she may live. And it’s been thirty days now since I’ve been invited to come to the king.”

When Hathach told Mordecai what Esther had said, Mordecai sent her this message: “Don’t think that just because you live in the king’s house you’re the one Jew who will get out of this alive. If you persist in staying silent at a time like this, help and deliverance will arrive for the Jews from someplace else; but you and your family will be wiped out. Who knows? Maybe you were made queen for just such a time as this.”

Esther sent back her answer to Mordecai: “Go and get all the Jews living in Susa together. Fast for me. Don’t eat or drink for three days, either day or night. I and my maids will fast with you. If you will do this, I’ll go to the king, even though it’s forbidden. If I die, I die.

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

Profession of Faith Hebrews 10:22-25 (The Message Translation)

So let’s do it—full of belief, confident that we’re presentable inside and out. Let’s keep a firm grip on the promises that keep us going. He always keeps his word. Let’s see how inventive we can be in encouraging love and helping out, not avoiding worshiping together as some do but spurring each other on, especially as we see the big Day approaching.

Prayers of the People A Lenten Prayer sung by choir

Text by B. Echols | Music by R. Powell

Lord, I ask a blessing for my soul today; Give me peace from heaven as I kneel and pray. Forty days did Jesus face temptations strong; Give me strength to conquer knowing right from wrong.

Lord, I ask a blessing for my soul today; Give me peace from heaven as I kneel and pray. I would be like Jesus turning from all sin, with His love to keep me true and faithful within.

Lord, I ask a blessing for my soul today; Give me peace from heaven as I kneel and pray. When I look to Jesus, He will show the way; Help me come to meet Him Pure on Easter Day.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be
done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we

forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

Liturgist: TBD

Vocalist and/or Specialist: Jackie Wright, flute, & Choir

Notes:

1. As the Senior Minister, I wish to thank all of you for journeying during this season of Lent via stories of women from the Old Testament. I pray your soul has been lifted and you will live your life with and for Christ!

Sincerely, Mashona Walston

2. All congregants and guests, please make your way down to Zimmerman Hall for a special event "Get to Know First!" where different leaders of First Church will share with those who are becoming members—and the rest of the church—what happens at First Church!

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday. Anyone interested in processing with palm branches alongside the youth of First during the first song is welcome to join, just gather at the back of the sanctuary before service!
